

With more than 1000 pools and 80 lakes in addition to white-water sites, you can always be sure of finding a quiet corner of paradise in which to enjoy angling in Franche-Comté! We'll be taking a look at two lakes specially devoted to your favourite sport: Saint-Point and Vouglans. A full range of fishing techniques can be enjoyed here! A boat is an ideal accessory and if you don't own one, you will easily find one for rent on site.

SAINT-POINT LAKE

Saint-Point Lake is also known as Malbuisson Lake, and resembles a precious sapphire surrounded by the wild Haut-Doubs area just a stone's throw from Pontarlier. Situated just a few kilometres from Switzerland, it covers a length of 7.2 km and a width of 800 m, with a depth of up to 43 m. This is also one of the best places in the Franche-Comté to find whitefish (or vendace or European cisco). Guaranteed to arouse the curiosity (and appetite) of experienced fishermen everywhere...

VOUGLANS LAKE

Situated between Lons-le-Saunier and St-Claude at an altitude of 430 m, the Vouglans Lake winds through the Jura hills over a distance of 35 km and covers 1,600 hectares.

Created as a result of a hydroelectric dam built in the Ain in 1968, its size is extremely impressive and it never fails to fascinate visitors with its marvellous turquoise colour. Vouglans is famous all over Europe for its high-quality fishing. From Pont de Poitte at the far north end of the lake to Port du Meix and the Surchauffant camping site, the area set aside for fishing is simply brimming with carp, pike and other carnivores.
